

Training & Courses

Specialty Courses

Industrial First Responder

Description

This program has been specifically designed for dedicated first response teams. The program covers a three-year period, from initial training, semi-annual scenario based learning and annual re-certification. The goal is to maintain competency while instilling confidence in team members. This course includes a medically licensed AED component.

Target Audience

First Aid & CPR trained personnel. First Response Teams or dedicated emergency response personnel

Topics

- Medical/Legal Issues
- Blood Born Pathogen Training
- Scene Management
- Airway Management
- Oxygen Administration
- Medical Emergencies
- Traumatic Emergencies
- Cardiac Arrest Management
- AED Provider
- Triage
- Crisis Intervention
- EMS Reporting
- Documentation/Patient Care Form
- Emergency Response Planning

Duration

- 24 hrs initial training. Followed by semi-annual scenario based learning and annual re-certification.

Certification

Each participant receives a wall certificate and a wallet card. Certification is valid for 1 year; and when a one-day recertification course is successfully completed, it is valid for an additional year.

 Handouts include : Industrial First Responder Workbook