

Training & Courses

Police Training

Emergency Training for Police Officers

Description

This course is designed to provide instruction to police officers on the skills necessary to manage medical emergencies until emergency care professionals arrive to provide assistance. The Emergency Training for Police Officers course includes topics of special interest to police officers.

Target Audience

This course is suitable for all police officers.

Topics

- Medical/Legal Issues
- Communicable diseases
- Standards training
- Scene management
- Choking
- Rescue breathing
- Adult/child/infant CPR
- AED awareness
- Shock
- Wounds and bleeding
- Ballistics trauma
- Street drugs
- Medical emergencies
- Reporting and documentation

Duration

- 8hrs (1 day) & 16hrs (2 day) format

Certification

1 day: Participants receive a wallet card for Emergency First Aid and CPR Level C.
2 day: Participants receive a wallet card for Standard First Aid and CPR Level C.
The certificate is valid for two years.

 Handouts include : Active Canadian First Aid and CPR Reference Manual